

AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND SOCIETY OF INDEXERS

NOMINATION FOR INDEXING MEDAL 2009

The Award is for the most outstanding index to a book or periodical compiled in Australia or New Zealand. The index must be in print and must have been first published after 2005. It must have been compiled in Australia or New Zealand, even though the text to which it refers may have originated elsewhere. The index should be substantial in size; the subject matter should be complex; and the language, form and structure of the index should demonstrate the indexer's expertise, as well as serving the needs of the text and the reader.

Nominations with a copy of the publication should be sent to:

ANZSI Awards Committee,
c/o Alan Walker,
Basement, 10 Rockwall Crescent,
Potts Point, NSW 2011
Australia

Publishers, indexers and all interested people may nominate indexes, and indexers may nominate their own work. The closing date for entry is July 14, 2009.
