B Membership and Subscriptions

Application for membership

- 1. Membership of the Society will be open to persons and institutions engaged in indexing and to others interested in promoting the aims of the Society.
- 2. Application for admission to the Society will be made in writing on the approved form which shall be submitted to the Membership Secretary or may be made using the form available online.
- 3. Applications shall be accompanied by the subscription applicable at the time.
- 4. The Council may, on the recommendation of the Membership Secretary, reject an application to join the Society. In that event the Council shall not be required to give reasons for that decision but it must refund any subscription.
- 5. A person who is not a member of the Society at the time of the incorporation of the Society (or who was a member at the time but has ceased to be a member) shall not be admitted to membership unless he or she has applied for membership in accordance with this Constitution.
- 6. Once an application has been accepted and the applicable subscription paid, the Membership Secretary shall enter the name of the applicant in the list of members.

Categories of membership

- 7. Personal members
 - . Institutional members
- 8. Organisations will be admitted to the Society as institutional members on application and payment of the subscription applicable for institutional members.
- 9. Institutional members may nominate an individual to represent them at meetings of the Society. Such nominees will be eligible to exercise all rights of membership except that they shall not be eligible for election to the Council.
 - Honorary life members
- 10. Honorary life membership may be awarded to members by resolution of the Council in recognition of outstanding service to indexing and/or to the Society.
- 11. Candidates for honorary life membership must have at least ten years continuous membership of the Society.
- 12. Nominations for honorary life membership shall be submitted to the Secretary by a proposer and seconder who must be current members of the Society, or by the committee of a branch.
- 13. The nomination must be accompanied by a statement in support together with testimonials if considered appropriate.
- 14. The Secretary shall forward the nomination to the Council in confidence. A motion to approve the nomination shall be passed if three quarters of the Council members vote in favour of the resolution.
- 15. An honorary life member of the Society will have full membership rights and shall be deemed a financial member without being required to pay a subscription.

Membership list

- 16. The Membership Secretary shall maintain a membership list containing:
 - (a) the postal address of each member. This address will be the listed address until it is altered by due notice given to the Membership Secretary;
 - (b) the date on which each member's name was entered on the list;
 - (c) the class of membership;
 - (d) for each former member the date of ceasing to be a member.
- 17. Any notice sent to a member at their registered address will be deemed to have been served on the day when in the ordinary course of events the notice would have been delivered.
- 18. Members may also list an email address to which communications may be sent. If a member lists such an address any notice sent by email will be deemed to have been received within 24 hours of the despatch of the notice.
- 19. The list shall be available for inspection by any member free of charge upon request at a reasonable time and subject to section 59 of the Act.
- 20. The list may not be made available to third parties for purposes other than the furtherance of the objectives of the Society.

General rights of members

- 21. A financial member of the Society is entitled
 - (a) to vote provided that not less than 24 hours have passed since he or she became a member of the Society and provided he or she is aged eighteen or over;
 - (b) receive notices of general meetings and of proposed special resolutions in the manner and time prescribed by this Constitution:
 - (c) submit items of business for consideration at a general meeting in the manner and time prescribed by this Constitution;
 - (d) attend and be heard at general meetings;
 - (e) receive the Society's Newsletter;
 - (f) have access to the Constitution, the minutes of general meetings, confirmed minutes of the Council and of branch committees, and other relevant documents of the Society as prescribed by this Constitution;
 - (g) inspect the membership list.
- 22. The rights of a member are not transferable and end when membership ceases.
- 23. Documents posted on the members' area of the website shall be deemed to be accessible to all members.
- 24. The rights to receive notices and to attend general meetings shall extend to meetings of the branch to which a member belongs.

Ceasing membership

- 25. The membership of a person ceases on resignation, expulsion or death
- 26. A member of the Society who has paid all moneys due and payable by a member of the Society may resign from the Society by giving one month's notice in writing to the Membership Secretary of his/her intention to resign.
- 27. After expiry of the period referred to paragraph 26 above
 - (a) the member ceases to be a member; and
 - (b) the Membership Secretary must record in the list of members the date on which the member ceased to be a member.

Liability

28 Each member's liability shall be limited to the annual subscription and such other annual fees as the Council may set from time to time for particular services or facilities.

Subscriptions

- 29 Each member will pay such annual subscription as may from time to time be determined by the Council.
- 30 Subscriptions will be payable annually on 1st July and in advance.
- 31 Upon election as an honorary life member no further s are payable, and any subscription paid for the year in which election occurs shall be refunded.
- 32 A member whose subscriptions is more than three months in arrears will be deemed to have resigned but may be reinstated to membership of the Society on application as prescribed in this Constitution and upon payment of the appropriate subscription.

Register of Accredited Indexers

- 33 The Society will establish a Register of Accredited Indexers recording those who have been assessed by peer review as meeting the Society's accreditation criteria.
- 34 The inclusion of a member's name in the Register will entitle that member to be known as a Accredited Indexer of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Indexers so long as he or she remains a financial member of the Society.
- 35 The Council may, at its discretion, charge an annual fee for entry in the Register.

C Discipline, Disputes and Mediation

Disciplinary procedures

- 1. The Society may take disciplinary action against a member in accordance with this section if it is determined that the member
 - (a) has failed to comply with the Constitution;
 - (b) refuses to support the purposes of the Society; or
 - (c) has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the Society.

Disciplinary committee

- 2. If the Council is satisfied that there are sufficient grounds for taking disciplinary action against a member, the Council must appoint a disciplinary committee to hear the matter and determine what action, if any, to take against the member.
- 3. The members of the disciplinary committee may be Council members, members of the Association or anyone else; but must not be biased against, or in favour of, the member concerned.

Notice to member

- 4. Before disciplinary action is taken against a member, the Secretary must give written notice to the member
 - (a) stating that the Association proposes to take disciplinary action against the member; and
 - (b) stating the grounds for the proposed disciplinary action; and
 - (c) specifying the date, place and time of the meeting at which the disciplinary subcommittee intends to consider the disciplinary action (the disciplinary meeting); and
 - (d) advising the member that he or she may do one or both of the following: attend the disciplinary meeting and address the disciplinary subcommittee at that meeting; or, give a written statement to the disciplinary subcommittee at any time before the disciplinary meeting; and
 - (e) setting out the member's appeal rights under paragraphs 10–13 below.
- 5. The notice must be given no earlier than 28 days, and no later than 14 days, before the disciplinary meeting is to be held.

Decision of disciplinary committee

- 6. At the disciplinary meeting, the disciplinary committee must
 - (a) give the member an opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) consider any written statement submitted by the member.
- 7. After complying with paragraph 6 above the disciplinary committee may
 - (a) take no further action against the member; or
 - (b) subject to paragraph 8 below, the committee may
 - reprimand the member; or, suspend the membership rights of the member for a specified period; or suspend the membership rights of the member; or,
 - expel the member from the Association.
- 8. The disciplinary committee may not fine the member.
- 9. The suspension of membership rights or the expulsion of a member by the disciplinary committee under this rule takes effect immediately after the vote is passed.

Appeal rights

- 10. A person whose membership rights have been suspended or who has been expelled from the Association under paragraphs C6–C9 may give notice to the effect that he or she wishes to appeal against the suspension or expulsion.
- 11. The notice must be in writing and given
 - (a) to the disciplinary committee immediately after the vote to suspend or expel the person is taken; or
 - (b) to the Secretary not later than 48 hours after the vote.
- 12. If a person has given notice under paragraph 11 above, a disciplinary appeal meeting must be convened by the Council as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than 21 days, after the notice is received.
- 13. Notice of the disciplinary appeal meeting must be given to each member of the Association who is entitled to vote as soon as practicable and must
 - (a) specify the date, time and place of the meeting; and
 - (b) state: the name of the person against whom the disciplinary action has been taken; and, the grounds for taking that action; and that at the disciplinary appeal meeting the members present must vote on whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.

Conduct of disciplinary appeal meeting

- 14. At a disciplinary appeal meeting
 - (a) no business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
 - (b) the Council must state the grounds for suspending or expelling the member and the reasons for taking that action; and
 - (c) the person whose membership has been suspended or who has been expelled must be given an opportunity to be heard.
- 15. After complying with clause C14 the members present and entitled to vote at the meeting must vote by secret ballot on the question of whether the decision to suspend or expel the person should be upheld or revoked.
- 16. Other provisions in this Constitution notwithstanding, a member may not vote by proxy at the meeting.
- 17. The decision is upheld if not less than three quarters of the members voting at the meeting vote in favour of the decision.

Disputes and mediation

- 18. The grievance procedure set out in this section applies to disputes between
 - (a) a member and another member;
 - (b) a member and the Council;
 - (c) a member and the committee of a branch;
 - (b) a member and the Society.
- 19 A member must not initiate a grievance procedure in relation to a matter that is the subject of a disciplinary procedure until the disciplinary procedure has been completed.
- 20 The parties to a dispute must attempt to resolve the dispute between themselves within 14 days of the dispute coming to the attention of each party.

Appointment of mediator

- 21. If the parties to a dispute are unable to resolve the dispute between themselves within the time required by rule C20, the parties must within 10 days
 - (a) notify the Council of the dispute; and
 - (b) agree to or request the appointment of a mediator; and
 - (c) attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.
- 22. The mediator must be a person chosen by agreement between the parties; or, in the absence of agreement
 - (a) if the dispute is between a member and another member, a person appointed by the Council; or
 - (b) if the dispute is between a member and the Council or the Association, a person appointed or employed by the Dispute Settlement Centre of Victoria.
- 23. A mediator appointed by the Council may be a member or former member of the Association but in any case must not be a person who
 - (a) has a personal interest in the dispute; or
 - (b) is biased in favour of or against any party.

Mediation process

- 24. The mediator to the dispute, in conducting the mediation, must
 - (a) give each party every opportunity to be heard; and
 - (b) allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
 - (c) ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties throughout the mediation process.
- 25. The mediator must not determine the dispute.
- 26. If the mediation process does not resolve the dispute, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.

D Officers

Officers of the Society

- 1. The officers of the Society shall be a

- 10. In addition to any duties imposed by this Constitution a member of Council must perform any other duties lawfully imposed from time to time by resolution at a general meeting.

^{*} The Act may be downloaded from

Proxies

11. Proxies shall not be permitted at meetings of the Council except that presidents of branches, if unable to attend a meeting of the Council in person, may nominate another member of the branch committee to attend in their place with the right to speak and vote.

Conflicts of interest

- 12. Any Council member, or member of a committee, who has a personal interest in a matter being considered at a meeting must disclose the nature and extent of that interest to the Council or committee.
- 13. The member must not be present whilst the matter is being discussed and must not vote on the matter.
- 14. The two foregoing clauses do not apply to a personal interest that
 - (a) exists only because the member belongs to a class of persons for whose benefit the Society is established; or
 - (b) the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the Society.

Meetings

- 15. The Council shall, subject to clause 18 below, determine the times and dates of its meetings.
- 16. The Council shall meet at least four times in each year.

Special meetings

17. Special meetings of the Council may be convened by the President, or by the Secretary on request of any three members of the Council.

Notice of meetings

18. Notice of meetings, stating the date, time and place of the meeting, and setting out the business to be conducted, shall be sent by the Secretary to all members at least five business days before the meeting.

19. Urgent meetings

In cases of urgency a meeting may be held without notice being given in accordance with clause E18 provided that as much notice as practicable is given to each Council member by the quickest means possible. Teleconferencing

- 20 The Council, or any of its committees, may hold meetings, or permit members of the council or committee to participate in meetings, by using any technology that allows members to communicate with each other clearly and simultaneously.
 - (a) A meeting so conducted shall be deemed to have been held at the place agreed upon by the Council or committee.
 - (b)At all times during the meeting there must be at least one member present at the place agreed upon for the meeting. Should a situation arise where no-one is present at that place the meeting must be adjourned.
 - (c) For the purpose of this clause a member participating in a meeting as permitted by this clause is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person.
 - (d) The minutes of such a meeting must record the fact that the it was held by teleconference.

Quorum

- 21. At meetings of the Council a quorum will consist of four members entitled to vote, provided that those present include the President or the Vice-President and at least one ordinary member.
- 22. No business may be conducted unless a quorum is present either in person or through the use of communication technology.
- 23. If, within fifteen minutes of the time appointed for the meeting to commence, a quorum is not present:
 - (a) in the case of a special meeting, the meeting lapses;
 - (b) in any other case the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same time, day and place in the week immediately following.

. Presiding at Council meetings

- 24. At meetings of the Council the President, or in the absence of the President the Vice-President, shall preside. Voting
- 25. Voting at meetings of the Council, or at a meeting of any committee appointed by the Council, shall be by show of hands unless two or more members request a ballot.
- 26. The President, or in the absence of the President the Vice-President, shall have a deliberative vote and, in the event of a tied vote, a casting vote.

Leave of absence

- 27. The Council may grant a leave of absence from Council meetings for a period not exceeding three months.
- 28. The Council may not grant leave of absence retrospectively unless it is satisfied that it was not feasible for the member to seek leave in advance.

F Election of Officers and Council and Casual Vacancies

Elections

1. The officers of the Society and the ordinary members of Council shall be elected by the members of the Society at the annual general meeting each year. Those elected shall hold office until the conclusion of the following annual general meeting.

Eligibility to Vote

2. Only financial members of the Society aged eighteen or over, and eligible to vote at a general meeting, may stand for office or vote at these elections.

Returning Officer

3. The Council shall appoint a returning officer to receive nominations. The returning officer must not be a candidate for any office in the forthcoming election.

Nominations

- 4. At least 49 days before the date appointed for the annual general meeting, and at least fourteen days before the date appointed for receipt of nominations, the Secretary shall cause to be printed in the Newsletter a call for nominations for the election of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and five ordinary members of the Council.
- 5. Nominations for office must be signed by two financial members of the Society and counter-signed by the nominee
- 6. Nominations must reach the returning officer no later than 35 days prior to the date appointed for the annual general meeting.

List of candidates

7. In the event that more than one nomination is received for any office, or more than five nominations are received for ordinary members of the Council, the returning officer shall make available to all members a list of candidates for election not later than 21 days prior to the annual general meeting, together with a statement that those not attending the annual general meeting may vote by proxy.

Proxy voting

8. Any member unable to attend an annual general meeting and wishing to vote may vote by proxy in accordance with clauses G27–33 of this Constitution.

Voting

- 9. If an election is necessary at an annual general meeting voting shall be by secret ballot.
- 10. In the event of insufficient nominations being submitted to fill the available places, the returning officer may call for nominations without notice at the annual general meeting and proxy votes will be allowed provided the proxy is an open proxy.

Casual vacancies

- 11. The office of an officer of the Society, or of a member of the Council, becomes vacant if
 - (a) a person resigns from office by notice in writing to the Secretary or President;
 - (b) a person is absent from three or more consecutive meetings, other than special meetings, without leave of absence under clause 20 of this Constitution;
 - (c) a person ceases to be a member of the Society;
 - (d) becomes insolvent under administration as defined by the Interpretation of legislation Act 1984 (Vic);
 - (e) a statutory manager is appointed under section 116 of the Act to conduct the affairs of the Society; or
 - (f) in the case of the Secretary of the Society, he or she ceases to reside in Australia.

President or Vice-President

12 In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of President the Vice-President shall assume the office of President for the balance of the President's term of office, and the office of Vice-President shall be filled by appointment by the Council.

Secretary

13. If the position of Secretary becomes vacant the Council must appoint a member to the position within fourteen days after the vacancy occurs.

Other positions

- 14. In the event of any other office becoming vacant the position shall be filled by invitation of the Council.
- 15. Persons appointed to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office until the next annual general meeting.

Removal of a council member

16. The Society in general meeting may, by special resolution, remove any elected member of the Council before the expiration of the member's term of office and appoint another member in his or her place to hold office until the expiration of the term of the first-mentioned member.

Ex officio members

17. The Society in general meeting may, by special resolution, carry a vote of no confidence in a member of the Council holding office ex officio. In such a case the branch concerned shall elect another member to hold office on the Council until the next annual general meeting but the member shall continue to hold office in the branch unless the members of the branch in a general meeting decide otherwise.

Right of appeal

- 18. A member who is the subject of a proposed special resolution referred to in clauses F15 or F17 above may make representations in writing to the Secretary or President of the Society (not exceeding a reasonable length) and may request that the representations be provided to the members of the Society.
- 19. The Secretary or the President may give a copy of the representations to each member of the Society or, if they are not so given, the member making the appeal may require that they be read out at the meeting.

G Meetings of the Society

Annual General Meetings

Date

- 1. The annual general meeting will be held not later than the last day of October.
- 2. Subject to the immediately foregoing clause the date, time and place of the annual general meeting shall be determined by the Council.

Business

- 3. The business of the annual general meeting will include:
 - (a) election of the officers of the Society and ordinary members of the Council as provided in Section F of this Constitution; and,
 - (b) consideration of the annual report; and,
 - (c) consideration of an audited financial statement for the past financial year.

Notice of annual general meetings

- 4. The Secretary shall give at least 49 days advance notice of the meeting, inviting members to give notice of any business they wish to raise at the meeting. Any motion signed by two or more members, and received not less than 35 days before the date appointed for the meeting, must be included in the agenda for the meeting
- 5. The Secretary must cause to be sent to each member a notice of meeting stating the time, date and place appointed for the meeting and the business to be transacted. This notice must be sent to be received by each member at least 21 days before the date appointed for the meeting.

Special general meetings

- 6. In addition to the annual general meeting, any other special general meetings may be held in the same year.
- 7. All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be deemed to be special general meetings.
- 8. Special general meetings shall be called on fourteen days notice on the decision of the Executive or the written request of at least ten percent of personal members as provided for in clause 10 below; or as necessary for a disciplinary hearing in accordance with the Model Rules for an Incorporated Association.
- 9. On receipt of a request in writing signed by at least ten per cent of personal members of the Society the Council must convene a special general meeting of the Society within one month of receipt of the request.
- 10. The request for a special general meeting must:
 - (a) state the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened; and,
 - (b) be signed by each of the members requesting the meeting; and,
 - (c) be sent to the Secretary by email or at the Society's postal address.
- 11. The business at a special general meeting called at the request of members shall be confined to the business set out in the written request.
- 12. The Secretary shall send to each member a notice giving 21 days notice of the meeting and setting out the business to be transacted.
- 13. If a special general meeting is not convened by the Council within one month from the date on which the request would normally have been received at the postal address of the Society, any of the members making the request may convene a special general meeting to be held not later than three months after that date.
- 14. If a special general meeting is convened by members under clause 9 above it must be convened in the same manner as a meeting convened by the Council, and all reasonable expenses incurred in calling the meeting must be refunded by the Society.

Publication of notices of general meetings

- 15. Notices may
 - (a) be sent to each member by prepaid post to the address registered by a member in accordance with clause B16 of this Constitution; or to the registered email address of a member in accordance with clause B18; or,
 - (b) appear in the Newsletter, in which case it shall be deemed to have been sent to each member.

Ouorum

- 16. No item of business may be conducted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members entitled under this Constitution to vote is present at the time when the meeting is considering that item.
- 17. A quorum for the annual general meeting and special general meetings will be formed by twelve members, personally present and each entitled to vote.
- 18. If, within ten minutes after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present
 - (a) in the case of a meeting convened upon the request of members the meeting must be dissolved and the business which was to have been considered at the meeting shall be deemed to have been dealt with.
 - (b) in any other case the meeting shall stand adjourned to a time and place to be determined by the Executive.

Presiding at general meetings

- 19. The President, or in the President's absence the Vice-President, shall preside at each general meeting of the Society.
- 20. If the President and the Vice-President are absent the members present must select one of their number to preside as Chairperson.

Adjournment of general meetings

- 21. A general meeting may be adjourned
 - (a) by the chair, with the consent of a majority of the members present: or
 - (b) by a motion to adjourn proposed and seconded, and carried by a simple majority of members present and voting.
- 22. No business may be conducted on the resumption of an adjourned meeting other than the unfinished business from the adjourned meeting.
- 23. If a meeting is adjourned for more than fourteen days notice of the adjourned meeting must be given in accordance with clause G4.

Voting at general meetings

- 24. Voting shall be by show of hands unless ten or more members request a ballot.
- 25. All votes must be given personally or by proxy.
- 26. In the case of an equality of votes the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote in addition to a deliberative vote.

Proxy voting

- 27. Proxy voting at general meetings will be permitted for voting on any issue..
- 28. Proxies must be members of the Society.
- 29. Members may nominate any financial member of the Society or the chairperson of the meeting as proxy.
- 30. Notice of intention to vote by proxy and the choice of the nominated proxy must reach the chairperson of the meeting not later than the day preceding the meeting.
- 31. Notice of intention to vote by proxy must be submitted on the prescribed form.
- 32. A proxy may direct the holder of the proxy to vote in a particular way or may leave the decision to the discretion of the person holding the proxy (an open proxy).
- 33. The Council may, from time to time, make rules for the deadline and procedure for the lodgement proxies.

H Branches

Formation

- 1. Subject to the approval of the Council and pursuant to these rules:
 - (a) no fewer than ten members in a geographical region may form a Branch;
 - (b) once a Branch is formed all members of the Society within that geographical region are deemed to be members of that Branch unless they choose to be a member of a Branch more convenient to their location;
