John Simkin Medal 2016 nomination form

The Australian and New Zealand Society of Indexers (ANZSI) invites nominations for the John Simkin Medal – an award recognising an outstanding index to a book compiled in Australia or New Zealand.

The index must be commercially available and have an imprint date of 2013 or later. It must have been compiled in Australia or New Zealand, even though the text to which it refers may have originated elsewhere. The index should be substantial in size; the subject matter complex; and the language, form and structure should demonstrate the indexer's expertise in serving the primary needs of the text and the reader. The book may be in either paper or electronic format. There is no restriction on the subject matter.

A completed nomination form together with a hard copy of the book should be sent to the Receiving Officer, John Simkin Medal, at the above address, and the Receiving Officer should be notified by email that the book has been posted. In the case of digital books, the form and a link to the electronic file of both book and index should be emailed to the Receiving Officer, John Simkin Medal at councilmember1@anzsi.org

All nominations will be acknowledged. Nominations are confidential and anonymous, in that nominees are known only to the Receiving Officer, not to the judging panel.

Publishers, booksellers, editors, librarians, indexers and all interested people may nominate indexes, and indexers may nominate their own work. The closing date for entries is 5:00 pm AEST, Friday 29 July 2016.
